COMPUTER-GENERATED COPY

We are entirely PC-based using Quark Xpress. We accept copy on diskette, Zip or CD (PC formatted). Alternatively we can receive data via e-mail. All images/graphics must be supplied in tif, jpg or eps* format, uncompressed at at least 300dpi.

*Please make sure that all fonts in the eps are included.

We hold the entire Linotype Library of fonts: therefore we cannot accept any other fonts unless your license includes a Remote User clause.

All files supplied in the above formats must be accompanied with a printout ('directory') of all images, graphics and fonts used and a laser proof of the advertisement.

For files sent via e-mail, please send a fax of the 'directory' and proof at the time of transmission to the attention of the production department. All computer files should be placed in a folder prefixed by the AntiqueWeek issue number obtained at time of booking.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Advertising which invites readers to send money to the advertiser, or to part with goods before payment, will be accepted only after the advertiser provides satisfactory trade and bank references.

All advertisements are accepted on the understanding that the advertiser indemnifies the publishers and their printers against any claims arising from those advertisements.

Advertising which resembles editorial reporting is not accepted. The publishers of AntiqueWeek reserve the right to refuse to accept, or to discontinue advertising for whatever reason.
